SEVERAL disloyal citizens of Columbus and Paducah, Ky., with their families, have arrived at Cairo, Mo., having been sent by Gen. Grant. Among them are a number of merchants and leading men, whose property has been seized by the Government.

A MONUMENT of Quincy granite, 25 feet high and costing $4,000, which has been erected in Newton, Mass., in honor of the soldiers from that town who have died in the war, was dedicated on Saturday last.

TENNESSEAN PARROTS have been recently described by Dr. Scott, supposed to be new to science. We have a number of parrots that are long talkers who are beginning to talk well known language.

RATIFICATION LETTER IN NAPLES.—The municipality of Naples has sent a piece of land to the Jews, which the latter intend to convert into a cemetery. Under the old regime they were not allowed to have a private burying ground.

AT the recent democratic fete at the Crystal Palace, in London, Mrs. Mellon got two sovereigns for scrap of Thackeray's manuscript of "Philip."

The Boston Post gives an instance of justice dispensed on wheels and on public road. It relates that a fruit steamer belonging to South Boston, but which had been committed in Worcester, was en route to that town, when Jas. L. Draper was met in a carriage going to Boston. The horse was reined up, a constable instituted, and the rogue was smartly fined for his provoking poaching.

A new mill, three hundred and fifty feet long by one hundred and eighty-four feet wide and three stories high, is going up at Lawrence, Massachusetts.

Bingham Young has started a new flouring mill and a cotton factory near Great Salt Lake City. The factory is supplied with cotton grown in Utah Territory.

The scarcity of horses in Clinton, Massachusetts, greatly impeded the company to send an agent to northern New York, who returned with forty girls.

All of the $50,000 subscription required from Amherst to get the agricultural college there has been secured. William Kellogg, formerly an Amherst merchant, will receive no attention.

The Chelopes river, in Massachusetts, is lower than it has been known for many years.

At Chelopes Falls the mills, though not all in full operation, can be run only a part of the time.

There is no lack of laborers at Gloucester, Massachusetts. Old hands find it quite difficult to get employment, and green hands stand no show at all. Bait is scarce, and many vessels are obliged to leave without their usual supply.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2, 1864.

The Board of Enrollment of the District of Columbia will be in session at the office of the Provost Marshal District of Columbia, corner of Fourteenth street and New York avenue, daily (Sunday's excepted), from 11 o'clock a.m. to 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of hearing cases of exemption from draft for the following causes, viz:
